RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

With the approval of the new Basic Agreement between the players and the clubs, American League Only and National League Only waivers have been abolished.

For details on the new waiver rules, see page 47 where an outline of the new waiver rules and other essentials of the new Basic Agreement appear.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a)(1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;

or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM, local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed...Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams...This is the only curfew in the American League.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

ROYALTY!!

The Kansas City Royals came back from a 3-1 deficit to snatch the American League pennant from the Toronto Blue Jays in the first League Championship Series ever played by two expansion teams. They came back again, from the same deficit, to beat the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1985 World Series. With Baltimore's win in 1983; Detroit's in 1984; and Kansas City's this past season—the A.L. marked the first time in its history that three different teams won World Championships in three consecutive years.

Joe McGuff, Sports Editor of the Kansas City Star, whose long and distinguished baseball writing career was permanently commemorated by the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown ceremonies this past summer, with the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, was on hand to deliver the ceremonial first pitch of World Series Game 7, at Royals Stadium. He summarized their against-all-odds victory in his October 28th commentary...excerpted below.

"...Nothing Was Going To Stop Them..."

"For better or worse, there is a time in human affairs when events assume a momentum of their own and overwhelm any attempt to control them. Perhaps that is the only rational way to explain the team that took its place in history Sunday night as the Miracle Royals.

No matter how long baseball is played in Kansas City, there never will be another season like the season of '85.

Those who were eyewitnesses to it will tell their children and their grandchildren about the light-hitting team that kept making comeback after comeback and then won the seventh game of the World Series with an 11-0 walloping of the Cardinals, who were favored in the Series by slightly more than 2-1.

The Cardinals led the National League in hitting, but they were limited to 13 runs by the Royals and batted only .185, the lowest average ever for a seven-game Series. The team known as the running Redbirds stole only two bases while the Royals were stealing nine....

There is reason to wonder if any team ever again will win a World Series the way the Royals did. To say they won the hard way is to hopelessly uderstate the case. What the Royals did was the equivalent of winning the Tour de France without touching the handlebars, or climbing Mount Everest without a rope.

The Royals' success can be explained in part by their superb pitching, but pitching alone cannot account for a team coming back from 3-1 deficits and winning both the American League Championship Series and the World Series. Pitching alone does not explain how the Royals became the first team in history to lose the first two games of the World Series at home and come back to win.

"You have to throw intangibles in," Manager Dick Howser said Sunday night. "You can't deny that now. If we got beat tonight, intangibles wouldn't have meant a hill of beans, but now that we've won, you can talk about it.

"How can you explain the look in a player's eyes? I can't explain it. I call it a fighter pilot's look. It's not in awe. It's not saying, 'Oh, gee, we're in the World Series.' I've seen it for a long time on this team."

Anyone who has followed sports is aware that real-life fairy stories sometimes have unhappy endings, but from the time Darryl Motley drove a two-run homer deep into the left-field seats in the second inning, the blue-clad fans in Royals Stadium became true believers. This was the Royals' year, and nothing was going to stop them."

Newspaper Headlines documenting events of the 1985 A.L. season ON OUR COVER center around the ROYALS' World Championship (front center), as proclaimed by the Kansas City Times of Monday, October 28th; and the BLUE JAYS' first division title (rear center), as announced by the Toronto Sun of Sunday, October 6th. ROD CAREW of the California Angels was extolled by the Los Angeles Times of Monday, August 5th (lower left) on the occasion of his 3,000th M.L. career hit; while the New York Post of Monday, October 7th (upper left) and the Chicago Sun-Times of Monday, August 5th (upper right) celebrated the 300th career victories of Yankee PHIL NIEKRO and White Sox pitcher TOM SEAVER, respectively. The Boston Herald of Saturday, October 5th (lower right) took note of batting champ Wade Boggs' A.L. season records for singles and games hit safely in for the Red Sox.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GENE WILLIAM MAUCH—Born November 18, 1925 in Salina, Kansas; Residence: Rancho Mirage, California . . . Height: five feet, 10 inches; Weight: 175 pounds . . . Named manager October 16, 1984.

Gene Mauch has guided the Angels to their most successful seasons in the club's history, winning 93 games during the 1982 Western Division title campaign and 90 games in 1985 when the Angels finished one game behind the Kansas City Royals. Mauch has completed 24 years of managerial service, ranking him in a tie for sixth with Leo Durocher and Joe McCarthy on the All-Time Managerial list. Other All-Time rankings find Mauch in the No. 6 position in total games (3,619) and No. 9 in victories (1,736). Ironically, he also holds the distinction for the longest managerial stint without a pennant winner (24 years). Mauch was originally appointed the Angels' skipper May 28, 1981. After directing the club to their second Western Division title in '82 (1979 was the club's first), he resigned on Oct. 22, 1982, citing personal reasons. Following a brief retirement, he was rehired as the Angels' Director of Player Personnel September 14, 1983. Mauch eventually reassumed the reigns as field general October 16, 1984. Mauch has earned National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions—1962, 1964, and 1973. The first two awards were gained at Philadelphia, while the latter was accomplished with Montreal. Mauch started his professional career as a shortstop with the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization in Durham, North Carolina in 1943. He played for six major league clubs—The Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944-1957, posting a .239 career batting average. He accepted his first managerial post with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953 at the age of 28. His first big league managerial stint occurred in 1960 with Philadelphia. Mauch managed the Phillies, Montreal and Minnesota before resigning from the Twins on August 24, 1980. He remained out of baseball until the Angels signed him as Director of Player Personnel February 12, 1981.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY La RUSSA, JR.—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, Florida; Residence: Sarasota, Florida . . . Married (Elaine), two daughters (Bianca, Devon); six feet one inch; Weight 185 pounds . . . Named manager August 2, 1979, succeeding Don Kessinger.

One of the youngest managers in the major leagues, 41-year-old Tony La Russa owns the second longest tenure of any skipper in the American League. Only Detroit's Sparky Anderson has held his present post longer—by a mere 14 days. The 1986 season is La Russa's seventh full year at the helm as he tries to direct the White Sox past the world champion Kansas City Royals and back to the front of the West Division which they won in 1983. The Sox' historic 1983 season is the highlight of La Russa's career thus far. The Sox not only set a team record by winning the '83 Western Division flag by 20 games, they also set a standard in the American League, wiping out the old marks for winning margin both before and after the start of division play. The '83 Sox 99-63 record was the second best in the history of the A.L. charter franchise, and La Russa was named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, Associated Press, and the Baseball Writers Association of America, among others, for his effort. La Russa's career record now stands at 496-472. La Russa gained his first managerial experience with the Sox AA team at Knoxville in 1978, winning first half honors in the Southern League. A star athlete at Jefferson High School (Tampa, Florida), he signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics in 1962, and made his major league debut with them in 1963. He also appeared briefly in the majors with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. He is a licensed attorney in the State of Florida.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers over a 5½-year period . . . during the span, he has won a World Championship, three division titles and finished second twice . . . Enjoyed perhaps his greatest managerial accomplishment in 1985 as he guided the Royals to their first-ever world championship . . . He capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff (using only six starters) and the work of reliever Dan Quisenberry as the team's key weapons while maximizing an offense that ranked 13th in avg. (.252) and runs scored . . . he then maintained his strong and steady leadership in guiding KC to the top of the baseball world in a pair of the most remarkable comebacks in Major League post-season history . . . Finished second in Baseball Writer's Manager-of-the-Year balloting in 1984 . . . Dick's 4½-year record as Royals' manager is 364-317 (.535) . . . other accomplishments with the Royals include winning the second-half of the strike-shortened '81 season and winning 90 games in 1982—his first full season with the Royals . . . A veteran of 27 years in professional baseball including 25 years on the big-league level . . . managed the New York Yankees to the best record in baseball in 1980 (103-59) and the A.L. East crown . . . became only the 4th manager in the history of the game to win 100 games in his first year (Ralph Houk won 109 in 1961, Sparky Anderson won 102 in 1970 and Mickey Cochrane won 101 in 1934) . . . after a 10-year stint as the Yankees' third-base coach, Dick managed the Bronx bombers for one game (at Kansas City, coincidentally), July 24, 1978, after Billy Martin resigned and spent one season (1979) at the collegiate level as head coach at his alma mater, Florida State . . . Began his playing career in 1958 following an outstanding collegiate career at FSU . . . The Sporting News' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961, Dick batted .280 in 158 games with the Kansas City A's and struck out only 38 times in 611 at bats—the lowest ratio in the league...was also a member of the '61 A.L. All-Star team . . . in 8 seasons and 789 games at the big-league level, he compiled a .248 batting average and 105 stolen bases . . . Dick holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as the Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961) . . . classmate of actor Burt Reynolds from junior high through college.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JACKIE MOORE—Born February 19, 1939 in Jay, Fla. Resides in Arlington, TX. Married (Joann), 4 children. Height: 6 foot; Weight: 180 pounds. Named A's Manager on May 25, 1984 replacing Steve Boros.

In his first full season as a major league manager, Jackie guided the A's to a 77-85 record in 1985. The mark equalled Oakland's record of 1984, in which Moore piloted the club for the final 118 games, winning 57 and losing 61 (.483). After 14 years of coaching in the big leagues, Jackie made his M.L. managerial debut at the Coliseum May 25, 1984, leading the A's to a 10-7 win over the New York Yankees. Moore had managed for roughly 2½ years in the minor leagues before getting his shot in the bigs. He piloted the Toronto Maple Leafs in their final days of the 1967 season, Jackie's last year as a player. In 1968, Jackie took over leadership of Jamestown in the New York-Penn League and stayed there through the 1969 season. Six years later, Jackie guided Pittsfield through the second half of the 1975 Eastern League season. Moore started his coaching career after catching for 11 years in the minor leagues and 21 games for the Detroit Tigers in 1965. Jackie was the Opening Day catcher for the Tigers that year due to an injury that sidelined Bill Freehan. Jackie was considered an outstanding defensive catcher with an excellent working knowledge of the game. The Milwaukee Brewers noted this and hired Jackie as a coach in 1970. He joined the Texas Rangers' staff in 1973 and was with that club through the 1976 season. He then moved to Toronto to help instruct the expansion Blue Jays and spent three years with Toronto, coaching at both first and third base. Following the 1979 season, Jackie returned to the Rangers for the 1980 campaign before joining the A's as their first base coach in 1981.

CHARLES KEITH (CHUCK) COTTIER—Born January 8, 1936 in Delta, CO; Resides in Edmonds, WA. . . . Married (Laurie), one daughter . . . Height: five feet, eleven inches; Weight: 180 pounds . . . Became interim manager of the Mariners on September 1, 1984 replacing Del Crandall, named to permanent position on November 7, 1984.

Became the Mariners' 5th skipper in just eight seasons. Since taking the helm in September '84, Chuck has compiled a .471 winning percentage (89-100), tops in club history . . . The appointment marked the first major league managerial job for Cottier. He originally joined the Mariner coaching staff in 1982 and served as the club's third base coach for the past three seasons. Prior to the '82 season, Chuck spent three years in a similar coaching capacity with the New York Mets . . . In his four years as a minor league manager, Cottier never finished below third place (a combined 287-197 career mark). His managerial career began in 1971 with Pittsburgh's Class A club at Niagara Falls (N.Y./Penn. League). In his first full season at the helm in '72, he captured the league title with a 43-22 record . . . Following the '74 season, he left professional baseball for two years to pursue interests outside of the game. He returned to manage in the California minor league system in 1977. He managed two seasons at the Class A level for the Angels before moving to the Mets' major league coaching staff . . . As a player, the Colorado native spent all or part of nine seasons in the major leagues beginning in 1959 with the Milwaukee Braves. His major league career saw him change uniforms on four occasions (Milwaukee, Detroit, Washington, and California). His most productive years were as a member of the Washington Senators' infield (1961-62-63-64).

CHANGES IN MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVERS

SUBSTANTIVE

- The "trading deadline" is now July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra-Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 pm ET the day after the end of the season. During the other ten months of the year no waivers are needed.
- It will be easier to compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the Major Leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of actual physical reporting will be used as the benchmark instead of the date the player was first placed on a club's 40-man roster.
- The procedure for outright assignments to the National Association remains unchanged from the 31st day of each season until August 31; during this period, ordinary waivers are required. However, from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season, special waivers are required:

  The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 pm ET the seventh day after the waivers were secured.
- Seventy-two-hour waivers, secured on players recalled not to report, continue unaffected except insofar as they no longer suffice for an outright assignment to the National Association during those times in the year when special waivers are required.

PROCEDURAL

- Waiver requests deadline is now 2:00 pm Eastern Time.
- Claiming period is now three business days for all waiver requests, including "special waivers" and waivers for the purpose of unconditional release.
- AL Only and NL Only waivers have been abolished.
- In the event of claims, withdrawals period is two business days.
- A club may withdraw once per waiver period on any one player.
- New waiver periods:
  - November 11 – 30th day of season
  - 31st day of season – July 31
  - August 1–November 10
- "Special waivers" and waivers for the purpose of unconditional release may both be requested during the closed period, October 10–November 10.
- Waiver price for selected and draft-excluded players is now $25,000, and may be set by agreement ($20,000 minimum) in all other waiver assignments. Rules on priority of claim are unchanged.
- Closed period on selected and draft-excluded players now runs from October 10 through the 25th day before Opening Day, and no assignments may be made pursuant to such waivers until 15 days before Opening Day. "Dates to Remember", from the league offices, will specify the correct dates each year.

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1986 SCHEDULE

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

QUALIFYING FOR LEAGUE TITLES

To assure uniformity in establishing the batting, pitching and fielding championships of professional leagues, such champions shall meet the following minimum performance standards:

BATTING

The individual batting champion or slugging champion shall be the player with the highest batting average or slugging percentage, provided he is credited with as many or more total appearances at the plate in League Championship games as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season, multiplied by 3.1 in the case of a major league player. EXCEPTION: However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest, if he were charged with the required number of plate appearances or official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting championship or slugging championship.

Total appearances at the plate shall include official times at bat, plus bases on balls, times hit by pitcher, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction.

PITCHING

The individual pitching champion shall be the pitcher with the lowest earned-run average, provided that he has pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

FIELDING

The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NINE AMERICAN LEAGUERS ARE LIFETIME .300 HITTERS

Veterans Rod Carew and George Brett continue to lead lifetime American Leaguers in batting with .328 and .316 averages, respectively. Actually, Wade Boggs of Boston is the top average hitter in major league baseball with a career .351 mark through four big league seasons. Don Mattingly of the New York Yankees also is high on the list with a career .323 average for less than three full seasons of play. All told, nine players are lifetime .300 hitters.

BASEBALL HOTLINE in Operation
March 6-April 6

For the seventh consecutive year the BASEBALL HOTLINE is available to the media during spring training. Broadcast quality actualities from the Cactus and Grapefruit League newsmakers are heard seven days a week, 24 hours per day beginning Thursday, March 6, and running through Sunday, April 6—the day before Opening Day of the 1986 campaign. A new three-minute program airs starting at 3 a.m. EST each day.

1985 A.L. MOST VALUABLE PLAYER— YANKEES' DON MATTINGLY

24-year-old first baseman, Don Mattingly, of the New York Yankees won the Baseball Writers' Association of America voting for the American League's Most Valuable Player of the 1985 season, with 23 first place votes out of a possible 28. Runnerup George Brett of Kansas City took the other five first-place slots, finishing with 274 total points to Mattingly's 367.

Don led the Major Leagues with 145 runs-batted-in in 1985—most in the A.L. since 1949 when Ted Williams and Vern Stephens of Boston each drove in 159. He was third in the league in batting at .324 and fourth with 35 home runs. Don also led the A.L. in total bases with 370, extra base hits (86), doubles (48) and game-winning RBIs (21). He fielded .995 to lead the league defensively at first base; and placed among the top ten in 10 of a possible 14 batting categories.

14 points are awarded for a first-place MVP vote, nine for a second, eight for a third, etc. (See MVP balloting chart at right.) 25 players were named on MVP ballots for last season's performances. Mattingly and Brett were followed by Rickey Henderson of New York, batting champ Wade Boggs of the Red Sox, and Eddie Murray of the Baltimore Orioles.

Don received his MVP trophy at the New York Baseball Writers' Annual Dinner in January, where he was honored as the New York Chapter's Player of the Year as well. In 1984, his first full Major League season, Don finished fifth in the MVP voting.

1985 A.L. CY YOUNG AWARD— ROYALS' BRET SABERHAGEN

World Series Most Valuable Player Bret Saberhagen became the youngest pitcher in American League history (at 21) to win the Cy Young Award, when he finished the 1985 BBWAA voting with 127 total points. Veteran Ron Guidry of the N.Y. Yankees was the runnerup with 88; and the only other A.L. hurler to receive a first place vote was Bert Blyleven, who split the '85 season between Cleveland and Minnesota.

Bret finished 1985 with a 20-6 record, a 2.87 earned run average and 158 strikeouts in 32 appearances for the Royals. He was among the league leaders in five pitching categories and was second to Guidry in winning percentage at .769 overall.

He followed up a great season with two World Series wins, including a K.C. shutout over St. Louis in Game 7 (see photo below) and a 0.50 ERA in the Series.

Royals pitchers Dan Quisenberry and Charlie Leibrandt were fourth and fifth in the Cy Young voting (see balloting chart at left) and a total of 10 pitchers were named in all on 1985 ballots.

Saberhagen placed tenth in the Baseball Writers' Most Valuable Player voting for 1985. His Cy Young Award is the first-ever won by a Kansas City pitcher.

TRIPLE HONORS FOR LEE MAC PHAIL

Commissioner Peter Ueberroth presented the first Commissioner's Trophy for "outstanding service to Baseball" of his administration to retiring ex-A.L. and P.R.C. President Lee MacPhail, at Baseball's Annual Meetings in San Diego last December. The prestigious Commissioner's Trophy was last awarded to John E. Fetzer of Detroit by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

At a private owners' meeting in San Diego that same week, MacPhail was also honored with the August A. Busch, Jr. Award for "long and meritorious service." MacPhail is only the fourth individual to be presented with a Busch Award. Previous recipients were: Walter O'Malley, John Galbreath and John Fetzer.

YANKEE DH DON BAYLOR— OUTSTANDING IN '85

American League "beat writers," broadcasters and team officials voted Don Baylor of the New York Yankees the Outstanding Designated Hitter (ODH) of 1985 and named him first on 31 ballots and second on 24 of the 82 cast. Seattle DH Gorman Thomas was the runner-up in a close competition.

Baylor will receive the large trophy when the Yankees visit Fenway Park in 1986. The award is co-sponsored by the league and The Union Leader of Manchester, NH.

The Red Sox led the A.L. in DH hitting for a second straight year, with a combined .263 average. Baylor is the ninth different winner of the ODH award in the 13 years it has been in existence. Don slugged .432 as a DH and had a .332 on-base percentage in 1985, with 110 hits, 70 runs scored and 48 extra base hits as a DH.

Previous Outstanding Designated Hitters of the Year were:

BOBBY COX IS BBWAA'S A.L. MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Bobby Cox, who led the Toronto Blue Jays to their first-ever division title in 1985, was named Manager of the Year in the American League by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Cox placed first on 16 of the 28 ballots cast and placed second on seven others and third on three ballots. Dick Howser, who managed the K.C. Royals to a World Championship last season, was second with 63 total points to Cox's 104. California's Gene Mauch, Billy Martin of the N.Y. Yankees, Oakland's Jackie Moore, Tony La Russa of the Chicago White Sox and Boston's John McNamara, were the other A.L. skippers named on ballots. Cox resigned his managerial position with the Blue Jays immediately after the ALCS to accept the post of General Manager for the Atlanta Braves.

A.L. RELIEF PITCHER OF THE YEAR IS K.C.'S DAN QUISENBERRY

Dan Quisenberry's 37 "saves" in 1985, for the Kansas City Royals, earned him his fourth straight A.L. Rolaids Relief Man of the Year award; and his fifth over the last six seasons. Quiz's 1985 ERA was 2.37 and he appeared in 84 games for the Royals.

1985 was Dan's fifth straight season of 30-or-more "saves" and he has accumulated 211 "saves" since the start of the 1980 season. He set the M.L. record in 1983 with 45 "saves" (since matched by Bruce Sutter in the N.L.)

CHICAGO'S OZZIE GUILLEN WINS A.L. "ROOKIE OF THE YEAR" HONORS; TOPS SS IN FIELDING

The Chicago White Sox won their second American League "Rookie of the Year" Award in the last three seasons in 1985 as shortstop Ozzie Guillen won the honor. In 1983, White Sox outfielder Ron Kittle won the rookie award.

Guillen, who hit .273 in 150 games for the White Sox, was given 16 first place votes and seven second place votes for a total of 101, in the balloting of the 28-man Baseball Writers Association of America Committee. Ted Higuera, Milwaukee southpaw who won 15 games in his rookie season, was runnerup with nine firsts, seven seconds and a third place vote, for a total of 67 points.

Guillen topped American League shortstops in fielding percentage with a .980 mark and only 12 errors in 614 fielding chances at short.

Balloting results in the 1985 Rookie Award voting appear on page 59.

JACKSON 8th ON ALL-TIME HOMER LIST; CAREW HITTING LIFETIME .328

Reggie Jackson's 27 home runs in the 1985 season moved the veteran slugger into eighth place on the all-time home run list. His 530 round-trippers puts him three behind Jimmy Foxx and six in back of Mickey Mantle. He is the only active player over the 500 mark.

Above, he is pictured with 1985 teammate Rod Carew who still leads all active major league players with a .328 average (players in the majors five or more years). Carew, who was a free agent at publishing time, passed the 3,000 hit mark last season with the California Angels. His current total is 3,053.

(American League won 48 series, National League won 34 series.)

ROYALS' GEORGE BRETT MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OF ALCS

Kansas City's George Brett was a unanimous choice as Most Va able Player of the 1985 American League Championship Series.

The 10-time A.L. All-Star third baseman, who was "Player of the Month" in both May and July of '85, had eight hits in 23 ALCS at-bats last October, including two doubles and three home runs. Among his fi ALCS runs-batted-in were two game-winners. Brett also walked sev times and scored six runs.

He hit .348 during the seven-game League Championship Series and was second at .335 in the A.L.'s 1985 batting race (to Boggs of Bosto at .368). George has now hit over .300 in nine of his eleven M.L. seaso and owns a .340 lifetime ALCS batting average.

Two home runs by home-town hero Tom Brunansky gave the American League an 18-17 win in its last turn at bat in the first All-Star-Game Home Run Hitting Contest in Minneapolis' Metrodome last July. More than 45,000 fans attended the event, held during the All-Star workouts, and contributed nearly $100,000 to local amateur baseball programs.

The 1986 All-Star Game will be hosted by the Houston Astros and is scheduled for the Astrodome on Tuesday, July 15, 1986. The 39th mid-summer classic was the only other All-Star Game played in Houston...a 1-0 N.L. victory on July 9, 1968. Three American League Hall of Famers were members of the '68 squad—Brooks Robinson of Baltimore, Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota and Mickey Mantle of the NY Yankees. All three have since served as All-Star Honorary Captains for the A.L. (see list below).

Year	American League	Year	American League
1975	Mickey Mantle	1981	Bob Feller
1976	Bob Lemon	1982	Yogi Berra

1978	Brooks Robinson	1984	Hank Greenberg
1979	Lefty Gomez	1985	Harmon Killebrew

Through last year's mid-summer classic in Minneapolis' Metrodome, 2,466,468 fans had attended All-Star Games since the first game was played in Chicago's Comiskey Park on July 6, 1933. A crowd of 34,533 or better on July 15th in Houston's Astrodome will put attendance for the mid-season highlight over the 2,500,000 mark.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME...

A growing number of American League players are dedicating their time and resources to community and charitable involvements in their home cities. A wide variety of worthy causes and organizations across the country have benefited by the commitment of these athletes to give back to their communities—both materially and of themselves.

A list of A.L. players who have made visits to local hospitals, schools or youth groups; players who have participated in charity golf tournaments; players who have donated time and/or money to individual local charities; players who have purchased tickets to ball games for youth in their communities, etc., would be enormous. Here are just a few of the many A.L. "community All-Stars" and a partial listing of their involvements, led by Eddie Murray whose contribution to build the Carrie Murray Outdoor Educational Complex is believed to be the largest-ever monetary charitable contribution by a player. He also organized "Project 33" for disadvantaged youth to attend Baltimore Orioles games.

Boston's Mike Easler (Jimmy Fund, Veterans Administration Hospitals); Doug DeCinces of California (National March of Dimes, Orangewood Home for Abused Children); Chicago's Greg Walker (Easter Seal Foundation, National Downs Syndrome, Veterans Bedside Network); Brett Butler of Cleveland (Project CARE and Leukemia Society); Detroit's Lance Parrish (Cystic Fibrosis); George Brett (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis) and Dan Quisenberry (Harvesters—The Community Food Network) of Kansas City; Milwaukee's Charlie Moore (Arthritis Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Athletes for Youth); Ron Davis of Minnesota (Boys & Girls Clubs, area children's hospitals); N.Y. Yankees Ron Guidry (Special Olympics), Don Baylor (Cystic Fibrosis) and Dave Winfield (whose Winfield Foundation provides a variety of services to the needy and to area youth); Tim Birtsas of Oakland (local youth groups and handicapped children); Alvin Davis of Seattle (Washington Interscholastic Activities Association, United Cerebral Palsy, American Heart Association); Pete O'Brien of Texas (Cystic Fibrosis, Rangers' Adopt-A-School); and Toronto's Ernie Whitt (Variety Village Children's Center, Canadian Cancer Society).

We're very proud that American League umpire crew chief Larry Barnett was nominated for the Presidential Medal of Freedom—the highest honor the President of the United States may bestow on a civilian—for his untiring work with the Veterans Administration.

WORLD CHAMPION ROYALS PLAY RANGERS IN AUGUST 4 "HALL OF FAME" CONTEST

In a break with tradition, two American League teams will meet in the annual "Hall of Fame" Game at Cooperstown this summer. Because no common Monday was available to both American and National League teams, two A. L. clubs were made available for the annual game. The World Champion Kansas City Royals will play the Texas Rangers at Cooperstown on Monday afternoon, August 4th. It will be the Royals' first appearance at the Hall of Fame and the first by any K. C. club since 1959.

It is anticipated that the regular series between American and National League opponents will resume in 1987.

The game between the Rangers and World Champ Royals will climax the three-day weekend that features the Sunday afternoon induction ceremonies. Former San Francisco Giant great Willie McCovey will be inducted along with any old timers selected this spring by the Veterans Committee.

Houston defeated Baltimore in last year's Hall of Fame game, but the American League holds a 24-15 lead with three ties in the series.

Below is a list of those organizations who receive grants from Baseball to defray the costs of operating their baseball programs in the United States and to encourage youth baseball...

American Legion
National Amateur Baseball Federation
United States Baseball Federation
National Federation of High Schools Athletics Association
National Senior Baseball Commission
National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics
National Junior College Athletic Association
California Community College Association
Northwestern Community College Association
All American Baseball Association
NCAA (Seven Summer College Baseball Programs)

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME'S THIRD CONSECUTIVE PHOTO CONTEST

Professional photographers may submit entries to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, in any of the following categories—black and white action, black and white feature, color action and color feature. First, second and third prizes of $800.00, $300.00 and $150.00 respectively will be awarded in each category. All entries (either color slides or photos mounted on 11" x 14" boards) must be postmarked prior to November 30 and must be accompanied by an official entry form which will be sent to all newspapers. Additional entry forms are available from The Hall of Fame, P.O. Box 590, Cooperstown, NY 13326.

INDIANS' BRETT BUTLER AMONG A.L. LEADERS IN 8 CATEGORIES

In his second year of play with the Cleveland Indians, Brett Butler became one of the league leaders, offensively and defensively in 1985. The 28-year-old Los Angeles native committed only one error in 457 total chances to top all American League outfielders.

Butler was fifth in the A. L. in hitting at .311, eighth in runs scored (106), eighth in total hits with 184, second in triples with 14, third in stolen bases (47), and ninth in on-base percentage at .377. In two seasons with the Tribe, Butler has scored more than 100 runs each year as leadoff man (108 in 1984 and 106 last season).

ALL-TIME HIGH SCORERS

The New York Yankees, who have played in a record 33 World Series and won a record 22, scored more runs in the 1960 series LOSS to Pittsburgh than any team has ever scored in a series. The Yanks scored 55 runs in the seven game set, 12 more runs than have been scored by any other team in W.S. history. The Yankees and Pirates scored a record 82 runs in the '60 series.

The Kansas City Royals outscored the Toronto Blue Jays 26-25, in the seven-game 1985 ALCS; and outscored the St. Louis Cardinals 28-13 in the seven-game World Series.

RULES FOR SPRING TRAINING STANDINGS

Games which count in the standings during spring training include all "A" games, including split squad contests and games against Japanese major league teams. Those games which do not count are those designated as "B" games or played against minor league or college competition.

Pictured left is the A.L.'s Media Softball Team, who gathered after their 7-5 victory over the N.L. last December at Baseball's Annual Meetings in San Diego. The win evened the Media Series at one apiece and was highlighted by a fourth-inning triple play (Phil Rogers to Mike Barnes to MVP Peter Schmuck).
